It was discussed that some subcommittee positions are dormant due to the pandemic and can be filled as willing participants arrive.

During November and December ASC meetings there was a consensus to rotate area locations between Union Mission and Never Alone meeting location due to addition space required for social distancing and several locations being closed. There was no motion but the decision needs to go back to homegroups.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS: none

NEW BUSINESS: elections

See chart above for NEW trusted servants and OPEN positions.

Congratulations to all who were voted in to your new positions. Your willingness to serve plays a large part in this area's success! Once again, Thank you!!

To: Tar-Roanoke Area Service Body

From: Sabrina L., Treasurer

Attached you will find the November bank statement reflecting the balance of $941.00 as of Nov. 30, 2020. As per spreadsheet, you will notice all cash received at last ASC was allocated to rent and Region.

Attached is the spreadsheet for home group donations and payouts.

After ASC last month I was able to retrieve bank book from previous Treasurer.

The chair, secretary, and I met to change signatures on the cards at BBT in Rocky Mount. I also had them change the address to my address for future contact purposes.

I was wondering if this body thinks that the password for the bank account should be changed. It is the same password we have used since 2013, so I'm thinking it should be changed for our protection. Please advise.

Thank you for allowing me to serve.

In Loving Service,

Sabrina L.
